Please stop by and wish Mrs. Jacobsen well as she embarks on this next phase of her life.

What do you look for in a church? Good friends? Enjoyable worship? Being spiritually well fed? A temptation might be to feel that we don't need to leave our pew but just live out our faith in the safe and secure confines of our church and school and so never make a difference in our world. Please join us in church next week as we will ask and answer the question: Does this church make me look fat? Please read Luke 24 in preparation for next week's worship.
